"IT'S THE ECONOMY, STUPID!"

To keep voters focused on their financial well-being, campaign manager James Carville coined the catchphrase "It's the economy, stupid!" in 1992 during Bill Clinton's successful presidential bid. And it remains just as true today. Americans vote on kitchen-table issues—everyday, practical economic concerns that most impact their daily lives.

So let's take a hard look at how we are faring since Trump took office for his second term. Gas prices rose over 60%, from $2.81 per gallon in January 2025 to $4.60 in May 2026. Affordable Care Act health insurance premiums have skyrocketed an average of 58%. Electricity prices nationwide have risen by 11 to 13%. Childcare costs increased 5.2% last year. And inflation, affecting the cost of pretty much everything, has outpaced wage growth. A majority of Americans now believe that Donald Trump's policies are leaving them "financially worse off," according to a recent CBS News/YouGov poll. But our poor farmers might have it the worst, with tariffs and trade wars drying up export markets and fertilizer prices that surged double digits with our President's war of choice.

Compare our current economic reality to what Trump promised us during his campaign: "We will end inflation"; get gasoline "below $2 a gallon"; "We will be slashing energy and electricity prices by half within 12 months." He promised to "cap credit card rates at 10%" and assured us that he would "bring down the price of everything from electricity rates to groceries, airfares and housing costs."

As I write, there is a bipartisan housing bill sitting on Trump's desk—the largest housing affordability bill in decades and one of the few pieces of legislation our partisan government has managed to agree on—but our President canceled its signing at the last minute, insisting that his SAVE America Act, combating imaginary voter fraud, is more important than his constituents making ends meet. Clearly the man cares only for himself and the wealth of his cronies. So do your family a favor: Vote your pocketbook come November. Vote Democrat.

PAULA WHITE-CAIN

The problem for Trump, when he entered politics, was that although he had superficially identified as a Presbyterian after his mother's denomination, he had never been a churchgoer and never spoken about the role of faith in his life. Yet he desperately needed the evangelical vote to win office. Trump's morality and ethics were questionable at best—many would say reprehensible. No, he didn't consume alcohol or drugs. His weakness was the flesh; i.e., Stormy Daniels, E. Jean Carroll, etc., etc. And he had demonstrated a lifelong penchant for cheating contractors, evading taxes, serial business bankruptcies, habitual lying about everything under the sun…and a long list of other character faults and bad habits that lead him about as far from the morality of Christ as it's possible to stray.

In order to secure the Republican presidential nomination in 2016, Trump needed to convince the evangelical Christian base that he was truly a God-fearing disciple of Christ. Several Christian ministers came to the rescue, assuring their flocks that Trump was the real deal. The most influential whitewashers were Franklin Graham (son of Billy Graham) and televangelist Paula White, now known as Paula White-Cain after her third marriage. According to these Bible thumpers, Donald Trump was not just a run-of-the-mill Christian politician, but damn near equal in importance to John the Baptist or Constantine, because God had inspired him to lead a faith-based revival of America!

Paula White was born in Tupelo, Mississippi, the birthplace of Elvis Presley, in 1966. When she was five, her mother separated from her father, who committed suicide after the family packed up and moved to Memphis. The mother became an alcoholic as Paula and her brother endured acute poverty. Paula claims she was also sexually abused in her youth. At age 18, after the family moved to Maryland, she joined the Damascus Church of God as a born-again Christian. In 1991, she and husband Randy White formed the Tampa Christian Center—eventually renamed the Without Walls International Church because services were held outdoors, in a tent—and by 1999 there were 5,000 devotees attending services every week. Still, the church had trouble paying its bills and eventually declared bankruptcy. After working a stint as pastor of the New Destiny Christian Center, White found her real calling: televangelism. She started broadcasting on the Paula White Today show in 2001, quickly gaining a following with her "charismatic" sermonizing—meaning flamboyant and emotional. She doesn't handle poisonous snakes, but she often babbles in tongues—indecipherable gibberish—while hopping and prancing around onstage.

Ebony magazine said this about White's ministry: "You know you're on to something new and significant when the most popular woman preacher on the Black Entertainment Network is a white woman." Among her new fans: Donald Trump.

Always impressed by any fool making a splash on TV, Trump invited her to Atlantic City in 2002 for private Bible studies. Then he made an appearance on her show. At this time, Trump Hotels & Casino Resorts, Inc. was under investigation by the SEC for deceptive quarterly reports, and just the year before contestants with his Miss USA pageant had accused Trump of barging into their dressing rooms while they were changing. Trump had already decided in 1999 that he would enter politics, with a failed bid for Ross Perot's Reform Party presidential nomination in 2000. Like many a con man before him, Trump decided a show of Godly contrition would help his cause. So he was looking to clean up his dirty act for the close scrutiny of another campaign in the future, and Paula White was the perfect angel to vouch for him. In 2016, famed pastor James Dobson stated that Paula White was responsible for converting Trump into a "baby Christian." More like an enfant terrible!

White delivered the invocation at Trump's first inauguration, was appointed to his Center for Faith and Opportunity Initiative in 2019, and has acted as his "personal spiritual advisor." Now she leads his White House Faith Office, tasked with rooting out imagined anti-Christian biases in federal agencies, an inversion of the truth. Under Trump, the government is riddled with Christian Nationalist biases, and the White House is now an evangelical Vatican according to White: "Wherever I go, God rules. When I walk on White House grounds, God walks on White House grounds…where I stand is holy." She warned that "Christians that don't support President Trump will have to answer to God," and "To say no to President Trump would be saying no to God." Trump has taken his batty anointment as a holy man seriously, reposting on Truth Social a widely ridiculed AI image of himself as a robed, Jesus-like healer bathed in celestial light.

Of course, White is happy to reinforce Trump's messiah complex over and over again. In one of her more bizarre quotes, at the White House Easter lunch this year, she compared Trump's legal and political struggles to the suffering and crucifixion of Jesus: "Mr. President, no one has paid the price like you have paid the price. It almost cost you your life. You were betrayed and arrested and falsely accused. It's a familiar pattern that our Lord and Savior showed us. But it didn't end there for him, and it didn't end there for you. God always had a plan. On the third day, he rose, he defeated evil, he conquered death, hell and the grave. Because he rose, we all know we can rise, and, sir, because of his resurrection, you rose up. Because he was victorious, you were victorious. And I believe that the Lord said to tell you this: Because of his victory, you will be victorious in all you put your hand to." Wow! And holy fuck!

Paula White is a mouthpiece for "prosperity gospel": Pray to Jesus and God will make you rich like me! She once ranted, "There's a department of treasury in Heaven, and God is watching over everything you do, and you are storing up eternal treasure," and, "You need to send in $3,500. You need to send in $35,000. You need to send in that $100,000 check. If you do not write that P.O. box, if you do not call that toll-free number and you do not become a ministry of sustainer, you will never see sustainment in your life, and your dream will die!" With guilt-tripping appeals and threats like this, the proselytizer has amassed a fortune of millions, including a private jet, a $2.6 million home and a $3.5 million condo in Trump Tower.

This is a complete inversion of Jesus's message to "give up your worldly possessions" and follow him spiritually. The only time Christ lost his temper and used violence was in chasing the greedy moneylenders out of the temple. In Matthew 23:25–28, he condemned the religious hypocrisy of charlatans like Paula White: "Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside also will be clean."

Were Jesus to arrive in the prophesied Second Coming, we're pretty sure his message to Paula White would be this: "Flying around in your private jet, bitch, is as close as you and your ilk will ever get to heaven!"

BOUND FOR GREATNESS

PHOTOGRAPHY BY STEVEN ANDRES

I would definitely describe myself as a happy person, and one of the things that makes me happiest is being a porn star! I've had so many great experiences, working with lots of hot men and women and getting sexually satisfied in ways I never would have imagined. I've also gotten to play some fun roles—I even played an elf in a manga parody! That was a fantasy that came to life in more ways than one.

"When I'm not working, I like to play sports, dance and travel. I absolutely adore visiting new places, taking in the sights, people and culture. Of course, I really enjoy exploring in other ways too, especially in the bedroom. I'd like to think that I'm fairly experienced sexually, but there are always new things I'm learning. Recently I tried rope play, and I'd like to get more into that. There's something so freeing about being bound up. Does that sound weird? I hope not—because I love it!"

MADI LAINE & SCARLET SKIES

READY TO GET SWEATY

LARRY FLYNT PRODUCTIONS

I grew up on a farm, and I got the whole farmgirl experience—waking up early to milk the cows and feed the chickens, all of it. Even now, I lean toward outdoor activities. When I'm not working, you can find me riding a dirt bike, going fishing or out on a hike. That might make me sound like a bit of a tomboy, but I've always been very in touch with my sexual side. Which makes porn such a great fit for me. My favorite thing about XXX is that each scene is unique and such a blast to film, but getting to work with so many beautiful people is also really awesome. Put me together with a hot guy or a sexy girl, and never mind the horses and chickens—I think everyone will agree that I'm the real animal!" —Madi

I think I might have been destined for a career in porn. In college I got my degree in psychology, but I remember once in high school I did a presentation about how I wanted to be a sex therapist when I got older! I suppose there is an element of that in my job now; I certainly hope that my scenes have a therapeutic effect for my fans. My career has definitely benefited me. Being in this business is a lot of hard work, but I would take it any day over a straight day job.

"Sexually, I tend to like things a little rough, but playfully so. I enjoy bondage, and I love getting men off. When a guy blows his load, I actually get hornier! I'll tell you something else too—I go crazy for a man who is sweaty, and I am very good at helping him work up a sweat! —Scarlet

I don't take any shit from anyone," says tough-as-nails Juliette. "All my life people have said, You can't do this, and you can't do that. My attitude is fuck it! I can do whatever I want." That's why I started modeling. And here I am in HUSTLER!"

Of course, tough-talking Juliette doesn't mind a little rough stuff in the bedroom. "I enjoy some hair-pulling, spanking and nipple-pinching," she admits, "but I'm not into bondage or anything extreme. The one thing I definitely need is to be on top. A lot of men are selfish lovers and finish much too quick. If I'm riding a guy's cock, I can be sure to come first. I know a lot of people think of me as a bitchy tomboy, but I really am a girlie-girl at heart. I like romance. I just like it on my terms."

WAVES OF PLEASURE

DAVIDE ESPOSITO

I'm from Tokyo, which is a huge city. The upside is that there's always something new to do, but because there are so many people, it can be quite hectic. I'm pretty introverted—in my free time I like to hang out at home and play with my pet rabbit—so being in a heavily populated area can be interesting at times. That's one of the things I loved about doing this photoshoot. I was captivated by the beautiful natural scenery.

"Even though I'm introverted, I still have my curious side. I really enjoy observing people. And I can be adventurous; one time I had sex in the woods, which is the craziest place I've ever done it. Right now my fantasy is to be dominated. I want to be controlled by someone.

"In relationships, it's important to have a partner who is crazy about me, someone who demonstrates their feelings through actions and is willing to build trust. Trust me—I'm worth it."

Can I open up to you?

FREEDOM OF RELIGION? NOT IN AMERICA'S ARMED FORCES

AN INTERVIEW WITH MIKEY WEINSTEIN, PRESIDENT OF THE MILITARY RELIGIOUS FREEDOM FOUNDATION

BY ED RAMPELL
PHOTOGRAPHY BY CONSTANTINE STEWART

In his 2025 inauguration speech, Donald Trump claimed, "I was saved by God to make America great again." At a 2026 White House Easter event, Trump's spiritual adviser Paula White compared the Commander in Chief to Jesus. Embroiled in a feud with Pope Leo XIV about the Iran War, the President posted a Christ-like image of himself on his social media site. And as part of the "America Reads the Bible" event, cosponsored by the far-right Family Research Council, Trump read a passage from the Old Testament in the Oval Office. Under the Trump regime, the lines separating church and state are being erased, and the infiltration, invasion and infection of Christian Nationalism is virulently spreading through the U.S. government—and through the Defense Department in particular.

Michael L. Weinstein is the Armed Forces' point man resisting the Pentagon's proselytization of its personnel. "Mikey," as he prefers to be called, is an Air Force veteran who served with the Judge Advocate General (JAG) Corps, and he is the founder and president of the Military Religious Freedom Foundation (MRFF). As far as Mikey is concerned, no one in the "Department of War" should push their theocratic beliefs on enlisted men and women. And right now Christian Nationalists are pushing hard.

"Christian nationalism is a perverse, twisted and tortured version of mainstream Christianity," Mikey explains. Mainstream Christianity preaches that Jesus is the Prince of Peace who said in Luke 4:18 that God "has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free..." Christ's teachings include blessed are the peacemakers; love your neighbor as yourself; forgive others who have wronged you; love your enemies; and the meek shall inherit the Earth.

In stark contrast, Weinstein argues that Christian Nationalism, "is based on only the most wretchedly radical interpretation of the New Testament. It lusts to utterly destroy the American, democratic, Constitutional republic and replace it with an austere, ruthless, dystopian version of a Christian fanatical nation. A hellscape of merciless, religious, extremist bigotry, hatred and prejudice, which is founded upon the inhuman concepts of virulent white supremacy, violent antisemitism, hideous misogyny, rampant Islamophobia, homophobia and transphobia. Think Gilead right out of Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale."

M*A*S*H actor Mike Farrell and Colonel Larry Wilkerson, former chief of staff to Secretary of State Colin Powell, are long-serving advisory board members of the Military Religious Freedom Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, nongovernmental organization established in 2005 and headquartered in Albuquerque, New Mexico. According to its mission statement, MRFF "is dedicated to ensuring that all members of the United States Armed Forces fully receive the Constitutional guarantees of religious freedom to which they and all Americans are entitled by virtue of the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment."

In this no-holds-barred, candid conversation, the former White House legal counsel lays out a compelling case against "Secretary of War Crimes" Pete Hegseth and the Trump regime's efforts to evangelize and convert the Armed Forces—whether our service members like it or not.

HUSTLER: Tell us about your personal background.

MIKEY WEINSTEIN: I'm an Air Force brat. I was born in Albuquerque, at Kirtland Air Force Base. Our family has over 160 years of combined active-duty military service, in pretty much every major military engagement, [from] the Civil War to the Global War on Terror. My wife is the daughter of a retired Air Force pilot who flew 250 combat missions in Korea, and we are about to have our 49th wedding anniversary. We have four kids and three grandkids. We have three consecutive generations of military graduates.

My father was a distinguished graduate at the Naval Academy, class of '53—his best friend and classmate was H. Ross Perot, who ran for President. I was Perot's first general counsel. I was an honor graduate in the class of 1977 at the Air Force Academy, where my two sons graduated, in '04 and '07. One of my kids is a Democratic state senator in Ohio. He and his wife were classmates at the Air Force Academy in 2004.

I was four years as a cadet at the Air Force Academy, and I served another seven years on active duty—I was a Judge Advocate General (JAG). The last three years I was at the Reagan White House as an attorney… and was selected to be the Committee Management Officer for the Iran-Contra investigation.

According to your MRFF bio, you're a registered Republican who worked for the West Wing of the Reagan Administration. Are you still a registered Republican?

I'm still a registered Republican. I just haven't been able to find any of them to vote for the last three decades or so. Ronald Reagan was a nice man, not the most intellectual person in the world, but he'd be rolling in his grave seeing what's happened to the Republican Party. He and Ross Perot, founder of the Reform Party, would both be shocked by what has happened to the GOP.

You were born Jewish. Are you an observant Jew today?

I chant the Shema [a Jewish prayer] three times a day. I love my ethnicity and culture, but I don't really buy into the theology of that anymore.

What is the Military Religious Freedom Foundation, and why did you create it?

Our kids at the Air Force Academy were the victims of someone in Hollywood—Mel Gibson came out with a 2004 movie called The Passion of the Christ. We refer to it as The Jesus Chainsaw Massacre—it's an unbelievably bloody film. The pressure put on my kids at the Academy by their chain of command to see that movie was out of control. It was like a thread on a sweater, and I pulled that thread and realized that there was a systemic, pervasive, pernicious pattern of pushing fundamental Christian extremism. Completely unconstitutional, bigoted, hateful and prejudiced. My wife and I saw what was happening to our kids, and for 22 months we fought this.

The Military Religious Freedom Foundation is a militant, aggressive civil rights nonprofit organization in support of the U.S. Constitution, which mandates separation of the spiritual and temporal, church and state, in the most lethal organization ever created by our species, the U.S. military. MRFF is an NGO and now represents over 100,000 active duty, reserve and guard members of the military, and veterans.

Interestingly, about 95% of our clients are Christians themselves. The remaining 5% we have are Jews, Muslims and Buddhists—we represent 18% of all Muslims in the U.S. military, plus atheists, agnostics, secularists and humanists. We even have 12 members of the Church of the Jedi—right out of Star Wars. We don't care what they believe. >>

We only care about the time, place and manner in which a military superior believes he or she has the right to deploy their faith on an otherwise helpless subordinate. The military is a peculiarly tribal, adversarial, communal and ritualistic environment, and you cannot fight back. The military has its own rules. Fucking somebody other than your spouse is a crime; adultery is a felony…. The U.S. Supreme Court has determined that the compelling governmental interest for First Amendment freedoms, if you wear the uniform, is to maximize the lethality of our military. How do you do that? Good order, morale, discipline, unit cohesion, the health and safety of the troops, mission accomplishment. The military is a peculiar environment where you cannot fight back. If you're being proselytized to by your military superior, "Get the fuck out of my face," is not an option for you.

So they come to MRFF, and we do it for them, and we're real good at that. We provide our clients with AARP—anonymity, action, results and protection. We're extremely careful about protecting our clients' identities. We had a 19-year-old Navajo on an aircraft carrier in the South Pacific who was being mercilessly proselytized by his chief petty officer. He couldn't fight back. We were able to get that chief petty officer severely disciplined and moved to the far side of the ship, which are like cities. His parents sent me a message from Window Rock, Arizona, the capital of the Navajo Nation, saying, "Thank you for being the voices we're not allowed to speak with." I think about that every day.

> "THE MILITARY IS A PECULIARLY TRIBAL, ADVERSARIAL, COMMUNAL AND RITUALISTIC ENVIRONMENT, AND YOU CANNOT FIGHT BACK."

Mikey, what are some highlights of battles you and MRFF have fought with the Pentagon?

We sued the Air Force Academy years ago because they were essentially "volun-telling": If you're even being suggested to by your superior, you're being told. They were being "volun-told" to attend the National Prayer Luncheon at the Academy, a fundamentalist Christian event. We represented 255 Academy cadets, faculty and staff. We sued them in federal court in Denver. When I took the stand, the Justice Department representing the Air Force demanded to know the names of our clients, and I refused. The judge asked "Why?" and I said, "Because I'm an attorney, and I'm asserting attorney-client privilege." The judge said, "For all of them?" and I said, "Yes. I'd go to jail before ever revealing anything about our clients." And it stopped right there. We're extremely careful and focused on protecting anonymity.

Some of our biggest stories were the "Jesus nukes" and "Jesus rifles." We had 138 marines and soldiers fighting in one of the worst parts of Afghanistan, Helmand Province. Believe it or not, every rifle in the U.S. military had engraved on the metal part that held the scope Biblical citations from Matthew, Mark and Luke, John, including the Book of Revelation. Imagine the optics of American soldiers shooting Muslims with weapons that had those Biblical citations.

We broke that story. A company called Trijicon, a defense contractor in Michigan, had a contract to make beautiful rifle scopes. The "Tri" apparently stands for "Trinity." Think of Chick-fil-A or Hobby Lobby as a defense contractor. It wasn't just the rifles in the American military that had that on it; so did the rifles in NATO. Even the Israeli Defense Forces' rifles had that [Biblical citations]. General Petraeus was forced to start rotating the rifles back and get those off. This shows you just how pervasive, systemic and wrong this was.

We had another big success with "Jesus nukes" [in 2011]. There were U.S. Air Force missile launchers at Vandenberg Air Force Base in California. That's where the Air Force has its nuclear missile launch school. They were being inundated with a power point called "Jesus Loves Nukes." We got the power point through the Freedom of Information Act. The slides were filled with Biblical references about how much Jesus wants you to launch nuclear weapons. The Air Force was horribly embarrassed. They admitted to having used this power point filled with references from the New Testament for 25 years. We got that removed.

America's celebrating our 250th anniversary. We're a constitutional democratic republic. When our Founders looked at European history, they saw most of the bloodbaths that had occurred there were when men of the cloth had been men of political power. They looked at Cromwell in England. They were also moved by the Salem witch trials and said, "We're not going to do that here." They built a Grand Canyon between those things, because in this country we don't mix church and state because it leads to one thing: not little babbling brooks or streams or creeks, but to oceans and oceans of blood. [Like] the Crusades, the Inquisition, the pogroms, the Holocaust and the Japanese Imperial Army run by out-of-control Shintoism—whenever an extremist version of any religious faith is joined with that part of the state that makes war, it's oceans of blood.

MRFF began during the administration of George W. Bush, who described himself as a born-again Christian. How have matters regarding religious liberty and the military changed since Trump's return to office?

We thought things were bad under Bush [Jr.], but they didn't get much better, even under Obama. You start talking about confining their weaponized Jesus, that's some kind of different war. On a scale of 1 to 10, under Bush it was probably 4.5. Under Obama, it was whittled >> down to maybe a 3. Under the first Trump Administration, probably jumped to 6, 6.5. With Biden, it was still not great. But we're probably at a 16 now. If you're familiar with Margaret Atwood's book The Handmaid's Tale, the Hulu series, we are in Gilead. We are not in a car driving toward the abyss—we are living in the fucking abyss.

We are dealing with a Christian Nationalist country that's every bit as hideous as what we face via the Wahhabism extremism of Boko Haram, Al-Qaeda, the Taliban and Isis. It feels like the year 1933 in Nazi Germany. We are doing generational damage to our country, especially to its military. It'll take generations to fix. No other country in human history has ever amassed this much weaponry, and it's in the control of Christian Nationalist monstrosities. The fuel that makes MAGA run is Christian Nationalism.

The lionizing of an incredible bigot like Charlie Kirk—I'm sorry he died the way he did; no one should die from political violence—but he was a monstrosity. The fact that he got the Presidential Medal of Freedom and his wife Erika is on the Board of Visitors of the Air Force Academy, we are completely, totally out of control.

The gun smoke is in my face. My fear is, even if there's a blue wave in November and the Democrats take both houses of Congress—Trump will certainly be impeached again, and maybe this time he'll be found guilty—you think he's going to leave? I don't. And I think that will spark a civil war.

Mikey, the Trump regime's main ally in the Iran war has been Israel. Many supporters of Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's regime are religious zealots. What do you think of this unholy alliance of religious extremists?

It's as horrible as you can possibly imagine. I'm Jewish; I've been to Israel; I have family there. However, I've done the analysis, and it turns out Palestinians are human beings, and they're entitled to human rights. Being against that genocide in Gaza is not antisemitism.

In Trump's Easter Sunday social media warning to the Iranian regime, he not only threatened to commit war crimes against civilians and used obscenities, but Trump also invoked religion, writing, "Praise be to Allah." In another Easter post he wrote, "Glory be to GOD!" What do you make of that?
Even Tucker Carlson called out Trump for the statement "Praise be to Allah." That's just giving the middle finger to Islam. That's one quarter of the people on this planet—that's two billion people. We are providing a recruiting bonanza of unparalleled magnitude to every Muslim. There are 90 million people in Iran; he's attacked a country that was intimidating us just as much as Mickey Mouse was. It's not authorized by Congress. He's trying to denigrate Islam by saying "Praise be to Allah." We're killing plenty of people—not just those schoolgirls at the start of the Iran war. These are considered war crimes. It's not just impeachable stuff—people like Hegseth and Trump and all of their enablers should face tribunals, because they are supporting a war criminal administration. We are a rogue nation. We have to stand up and fight and call a spade a spade, be like Bruce Springsteen and the people of Minneapolis, Alex Pretti and Renée Nicole Good, who were shot. Resist every possible way you can.

> "I'VE DONE THE ANALYSIS, AND IT TURNS OUT PALESTINIANS ARE HUMAN BEINGS, AND THEY'RE ENTITLED TO HUMAN RIGHTS. BEING AGAINST THAT GENOCIDE IN GAZA IS NOT ANTISEMITISM."

How would you describe Pete Hegseth and his religious beliefs?
Christian Nationalism is essentially what you see in The Handmaid's Tale. It hates secular, representative, constitutional democracy. It cannot exist with the America we have now under our Constitution. They want an extremely austere dystopia, a hellscape of Christian conservatism. There's a whole list of things you'll be executed for; it's based on the Book of Leviticus and extremism. Fundamentalist Christianity is the same as what we're seeing in these countries that are controlled by Islamic mullahs. Iran is a good example. They want the death penalty based on the Book of Leviticus. It is completely incompatible with every aspect of the DNA of a constitutional democracy.

If you read what Hegseth has written, his book American Crusade [: Our Fight to Stay Free], he deplores anything related to the essence of what America is. On his right bicep he has tattooed "Deus Vult," which means "God wills it"—that's the verbal motto of the Crusades. On his chest he has the Jerusalem cross tattooed, which was the iconographic symbology of the Crusaders.

Now we have social media, drones and nuclear weapons. Hegseth is as far away from being someone who can actually handle our Department of Defense as a goldfish would be to drive a NASCAR race car.

Tell us about the Hegseth "Secretary's Prayer Meeting." Is this something new for Defense Secretaries?
This is absolutely disgusting to the highest degree. He started it in May 2025. You cannot preach the Gospel and weaponize Jesus Christ at any time, place or manner—unless you're Hegseth, the Secretary of War Crimes, once a month, in the Pentagon's largest auditorium, in uniform, during the duty day, violating all of the time, place and manner demands of the First Amendment, and clause three, Article VI of the Constitution, which states: "no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States." So Hegseth is creating a de facto, cookie-cutter religious test.

He holds these Jesus prayer services; he televises them on the Pentagon's TV channel; he chronicles them in the video library. On February 17 of this year, he brought in Douglas Wilson, his favorite pastor, head of a vast organization of reformed evangelical churches, based out of ruby red Idaho. Wilson believes that slavery in America was perfectly fine, according to his version of the Bible. He believes women should not vote and should not be in the military. But women have jobs—they've got to spread their legs, have sexual intercourse with their husbands, get pregnant as often as they can, do grocery shopping, cook delicious meals and clean up.

Muslims have no right to participate in the new Gilead, the new version of fundamentalist Christian Nationalist America. Jews are completely complicit in the execution of Jesus Christ. And if you happen to be LGBTQIA+, you have no right to live. That's being validated by the man who has the ultimate civilian control over our nuclear weapons and our laser-guided conventional weapons!

Is attendance obligatory at the Secretary's Prayer Meetings?
They say it's optional. It's not optional! When your military superior urges or encourages you to do something, they are being "volun-told" to go. They're assiduously keeping score who shows up and who doesn't, because Hegseth has created a cookie cutter of what it takes to be an honorable member of the Armed Forces: You must be white, straight, Christian Nationalist, and be born with a penis; you gotta be male. He has fired so many females, people of color.

Hegseth—or "Kegseth," as we call him—demanded all generals and admirals come to a mandatory meeting at the Marine Corps Base >>

Quantico in September 2025 from everywhere in the world. They all had to come—there were 838 of them in that room. Seventeen of those senior people were our MRFF clients, and of course Trump attended. [Our clients] said they looked like bullies and posers. Complete paper tigers.

What is the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) memorandum regarding proselytizing?

This is the Trump kindergarten view that we must root out anti-Christian bias. The mandate is coming from Project 2025, which is to MAGA what Mein Kampf was to Hitler. Part of it involves the Office of Personnel Management and other agencies making it clear we will stop anti-Christian bias. They're hunting for unicorns! There are no fucking unicorns! There is no anti-Christian bias—there's nothing but pro-Christian bias!

Doug Collins, a former congressman who's Secretary of Veterans Affairs and also a Christian Nationalist chaplain in the Air Force Reserves with the rank of colonel, made it very clear, in following with what OPM came through, that if anyone in the Department of Veterans Affairs, which is a huge organization filled with civilians, if they see anti-Christian bias and don't report it, they are just as guilty. MRFF is currently suing the VA, because if you go into the PatriotStores at the VA hospitals—they're like Target, where you can buy sundries—you'll see books there by Choice Books. There are only Christian books you can buy in the stores there. We hit the VA with a Freedom of Information Act request years ago—they are years late in responding—we are suing them for that.

This concept from the Office of Personnel Management all stems from this radical, weaponized version of Christian Nationalism embodied in Project 2025. It's all about their version of Jesus. Let me make it clear: 84% of our staff are Christian; 95% of our clients in the military, including the Coast Guard, are Christian.This is doing generational damage, even if we do have elections in November 2026.

> "THE BASIC FOUNDATION OF HOW WE RUN OUR MILITARY HAS BEEN TORN ASUNDER BY THESE RELIGIOUS EXTREMIST MANIACS…"

What do you think of the video of Senator Mark Kelly and five other Congress members who had served in the military and/or intelligence agencies urging armed service personnel not to follow illegal orders? How do you feel about the reaction to the video, which included Trump claiming they committed "treason" and the investigations of these members of the Senate and House?

When the war started, we went viral, because we had over 200 members of the military from U.S. and overseas bases come to us because their superiors were gleeful, joyful, euphoric, because they viewed the unprovoked attack on Iran, that was not congressionally approved, as the precursor that was heralded in their twisted, tortured version of the Book of Revelation, that the Battle of Armageddon was almost here. And how wonderful that was.

Our clients feel vulnerable and realize somebody who's not quite as vulnerable is a former Navy fighter pilot, war hero, astronaut and sitting U.S. senator, the intrepid and wonderful Mark Kelly. They're trying to pull his ass back—he retired as a Naval captain—reduce him in rank and try him, along with those other five members of Congress you mentioned, for simply telling members of the military to follow only legal orders. Under the Uniform Code of Military Justice, all orders are presumed legal, but if they are illegal, you may not follow them. You must not follow illegal orders. We can't have another My Lai [massacre] in Vietnam or Kent State.

To come after Kelly and the others for reminding military members they're compelled to follow only legal orders is not firing a shot across the bow; it's firing nuclear weapons, declaring to everyone in the military, "How dare you? You'll follow every order we give you." Had we decided to destroy a civilization when Trump said that, unless Iran opened the Strait of Hormuz, everyone in the military had to ask himself, "Is this a legal or illegal order?" Yet, the basic foundation of how we run our military has been torn asunder by these religious extremist maniacs, whose only desire is to make money and to serve as an accelerant and lubricant to bring their version of weaponized, monstrous Jesus back to Earth to start the bloodbath they're promised and lust for.

In April 2026, why did Hegseth the Crusader ask Major General William Green Jr., the U.S. Army's chief of chaplains, to resign?

We don't know for sure, but unfortunately, Major General Green doesn't fit the four characteristics I told you about to be the "right" approved soldier. His skin isn't white—he's African American. From our sources in the Pentagon, we understand that Major General Green was resisting Hegseth's efforts to reduce the number of recognized religious faiths in the Department of War Crimes, from 200-ish down to 31. Remember, our military has been incredibly diverse. Hegseth has also fired a number of female flag officers and anybody who would not toe the Christian Nationalist line.

Mikey, tell us about this: "The Military Religious Freedom Foundation has warned that thousands of active-duty military personnel may have been coerced into attending screenings of the Melania documentary." Why does this matter? Does MRFF also contend with nonreligious issues?

Yes, it does. Anything that glorifies Trump and MAGA and the jet fuel of MAGA is Christian Nationalism. We were reached out to by a number of military members in the continental U.S. and overseas bases that they were being forced to go see this. Anything that animates MAGA is being animated by Christian Nationalism.

Who is the commander who opened up a combat readiness status briefing by urging service personnel to not be "afraid" of what is happening with our combat operations in Iran right now. He urged us to tell our troops that this was "all part of God's divine plan," and he specifically referenced numerous citations out of the Book of Revelation, referring to Armageddon and the imminent return of Jesus Christ. He said that "President Trump has been anointed by Jesus to light the signal fire in Iran to cause Armageddon and mark his return to Earth."

We're not at liberty to tell you. We can't reveal who said that because we don't have the permission from our clients to do so. I can assure you it was said and that the same types of things were said many, many other times by many other commanders to their subordinates, who can't fight back. When we hear things from our clients, on occasion, even we're shocked, and we'll polygraph them. If they refuse to take the polygraph, which can cost more than $2,000 and we pay for ourselves, we'll refuse to take them as clients. We've never had a client who failed a polygraph.

This sounds like End Times prophecy.
Yes. The Book of Revelations says, when the final Battle of Armageddon happens, Jesus will come down out of the sky on a white horse, carrying a sword. There's a three-star retired general, Jerry Boykin, we've fought a long time who says no, it's not going to be a sword Jesus is carrying, but an AR-15. This has been completely corrupted.

These are called "Great Commission Christians." In the Book of Matthew, 28:19, Jesus said, "Go and make disciples of all nations." Those Christians don't look at what the majority of Christianity focuses on, the compassionate, humanitarian aspects of "The Sermon on the Mount," treat your neighbor the way you want to be treated. No. There are many denominations of Christians, but the ones who control America and the U.S. military now are Christian Nationalist Great Commission Christians.

Hegseth has defended war criminals from prosecution and made many comments extolling violence and warfare, often using religion to justify them, such as his prayer at a Pentagon Christian prayer service, when he said, "Let every round find its mark against the enemies of righteousness and our great nation. Give them wisdom in every decision, endurance for the trial ahead, unbreakable unity, and overwhelming violence of action against those who deserve no mercy." He has also prayed to "almighty God, who trains our hands for war and our fingers for battle." This is clearly not the God of Leo XIV, but a deity who fits Hegseth's cult of lethality.
Pete Hegseth is a motherfucker who should be criminally prosecuted. His concept is the domination, the insuperable control and triumphalism of Christian Nationalism. But it has nothing at all to do with a country that was built on a constitution separating church and state, as in the very First Amendment of the Bill of Rights…. He should be impeached and criminally prosecuted, as should Trump, Rubio and so many of them. This is the antithesis of what America is supposed to be about.

Pope Leo XIV appears to be responding directly to Hegseth, as well as Trump's unprovoked unleashing of the dogs of war. Over Easter the Pope said on Palm Sunday, "Brothers and sisters, this is our God, Jesus, King of Peace, who rejects war, whom no one can use to justify war. He does not listen to the prayers of those who wage war, but rejects them, saying, 'Even though you make many prayers, I will not listen: Your hands are full of blood.'" What do you think of Pope Leo's response to Hegseth and Trump?
It's heroic, something that can serve as an example for every human on this planet. It's the kind of thing that makes me want to stand up and salute. I'm not Catholic, but it was a brave statement to flip a middle finger at this vicious perversion of Christianity, this kidnapping of Christianity to create a totalitarian version of North Korea here in America. In place of the "Dear Leader" is this concept of the tortured, twisted weaponized Jesus Christ. Pope Leo has spoken for many.

His example should serve as a stimulant to all those who think they can just sit back and go bowling or to your kids' Little League game. You can't fucking do that anymore: You've actually got to get out and do something. You can contribute to organizations like ours and others that fight this. It's not 2026—it's 1933, 1934 in Nazi Germany now. Between 28% to 33% of the military is Christian Nationalist. You can't be a Mitläufer—in German, it meant those who just went along to get along when the Nazis were in power. We cannot be Mitläufer in America.

Have you ever heard of any pope explicitly rebuking U.S. militarism and warfare in such direct terms?
I have not. That's why he's singularly deserving—he's the one who should be getting the Congressional Medal of Honor and the Presidential Medal of Freedom—not Charlie Kirk. This is an act of bravery—he's so new; he was just elected by the College of Cardinals. It's having a significant impact—Vatican representatives have been called to the Pentagon and severely admonished by the administration, because the pope won't toe the line. Because this pope, who's an American, realizes there's something much bigger going on here. This involves humanity. When you see the perversion of his faith being turned into a death-wielding cudgel for these Christian Nationalist Brownshirts and jackbooted monsters to crush the skulls of everybody who doesn't agree with them, that is bravery—Pope Leo XIV is using his powers to stop this hideous advance of fundamentalist Christian Nationalism, this terrible nightmare and storm of hatred.

Hegseth is not fit to wash the underwear of Pope Leo XIV. [Hegseth] is a walking example of everything that is repellant and repugnant and deserves to be impeached and aggressively prosecuted.

Mikey, you're no stranger to HUSTLER Magazine. We first interviewed you in 2008.
In the fall of 2007, HUSTLER was considering doing a story about me. Larry Flynt wanted to meet with me. I flew to Los Angeles; we went to the Four Seasons in Beverly Hills. Larry was wheeled in in his solid gold wheelchair. We had breakfast there. To me, he's an American hero. You talk about champions of the First Amendment! I thought >>

MIKEY WEINSTEIN WITH WIFE BONNIE WEINSTEIN AND ELITE PROTECTIVE ATTACK DOGS.

Woody Harrelson did a great job playing Larry in [1996's] The People vs. Larry Flynt. So Larry would talk in hushed tones—you know Larry had been shot. He gave all for the First Amendment. You don't have to like his magazine or his pictures, but you should love something that this man stood for. He sacrificed his life and health to make sure we have a First Amendment that applies across the board to all of us. I realized I was looking at an icon.

We spent four hours—it felt like four minutes. We spoke about everything. I didn't know if this was an audition. I must have done well, because shortly after that breakfast they commissioned this journalist named Ed Rampell to do the story!

And here we are again. What's next for Mikey Weinstein?

Right now it's hard to put my head up and look at the horizon. I get a dozen death threats a day. Everywhere we go, you have to have bodyguards. We have concealed weapons and German shepherds—they're not pets; they're elite protective attack dogs. Infrared cameras. We're very careful how we do things so we can stay alive as long as we possibly can.

On January 31, 2026, I got this filthy email: "My name is Fuck Niggers and I am putting out a bounty for the death of all MRFF staff members. 20k for mikey and 5k for everyone else…" We gave it immediately to law enforcement. But my feelings were hurt: I thought I was worth a lot more than 20 grand.

Right now I'd like to live long enough to see our country get a full-throated rebellion and resistance to these monsters, these fundamentalist Christian versions of Al-Qaeda and the Taliban. The reason I did this interview is very much in the spirit of what Larry stood for: free speech.

You want to know something a little weird about me? Okay—I get totally turned on by food. I have a particular fondness for noodles, rice and beans and stir-fry. Sometimes, when I walk by a Chinese restaurant or taco stand, the smell is enough to get make my pussy wet.

"You want to know something else that's a little unusual about me? Recently I asked my boyfriend to leash and collar me and walk me around like a dog. It was so hot! I'd like to do that again—and this time have him put out a bowl for me, so I can scarf up food on my hands and knees like a hungry pup. I would love to thank him by licking his bone afterward.

"Of course, I like the taste of jizz too, but I prefer to gobble that up with my pussy. After I've had my fill of meat, nothing beats a nice, yummy creampie for dessert!"

SHY STEPSISTER SECRETS

HUSTLER VIDEO

ASHLEY ALEXANDER

DELLA CATE

Blended families can sometimes result in the unexpected. Ashley Alexander, Della Cate, Lilith Grace and Jill Taylor illustrate the taboo trysts of step-siblings in the sinfully sexy, outrageously hot 18YO Stepsisters Slide on Shafts. You'll want to watch this one over and over again—available on HUSTLERUnlimited.com.

MUSEUM PIECE

HUSTLER CLASSIC

PHOTOGRAPHY BY CLIVE McLEAN

Bonnie says life is a path we all must follow, so why not make it a path strewn with beautiful objects and wonderful experiences?

And for Bonnie, a most important item in her collection is the right man. "I like gentlemen, and I like blondes. I like to be treated tenderly, as if my lover's only mission in life is to please me."

When she wants a not-so-tender treatment, Bonnie steps onstage at the Palm Beach night-club where she is an exotic dancer. "I can stand onstage and feel the heat from a roomful of males whose only desire is me! It's as if their energy fills my body, and I become the sole object of their passion. There are hundreds of men who would give anything to spend even a moment with me."

Like a curator of precious artifacts, Bonnie acquires and revels in the sensual. But her body is her greatest treasure. And Bonnie would much rather possess than be possessed.

WELCOME TO VOYEURS' FAVE AMATEUR SHOWCASE SINCE 1976!

BEAVER HUNT

EDITED BY MORGEN "TEX" HAGEN

SHANNON RENEA

Thirty-seven-year-old Shannon Renea from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, isn't keen on finding a job that would keep her out of the limelight. "Appearing in Beaver Hunt will give me invaluable exposure for a successful modeling career," says the 5-foot-2 Steel City denizen, "plus I like to look hot and pose for sexy photos." Giving us a peek at her personality, Shannon Renea avows, "I'm the wild card that can turn ordinary situations into memorable, fun ones. A good example is when I was working at a strip club. One night some of the other girls and I played naked Twister in the VIP champagne room, and that was a blast." How's this for being even more uninhibited? "While watching porn, I stumbled upon a webcam girl who lived close to me. I met up with her and her husband—two complete strangers—and we made a threesome video." Shannon Renea wraps up her introductory narrative by confiding, "I'm a bi girl who's adventurous in bed and mostly submissive. I like when someone tells me what to do and takes control. I'm also multi-orgasmic, I'll try anything once, and I love a nice creampie." —Photos by Elegant Images Modeling Ltd.

“I’d love to be in a threesome with two girls, and having sex in a really public place would be cool too.”

Birthday Delights

For some delectable eye candy, we've rounded up a handful of Beavers celebrating birthdays in September. Lena Coxx from Marseilles, France, professed, "Whether I'm modeling au naturel or having sex, it's all about feeling free and desirable. I'm confident and spontaneous. I've been fucked in an alley, and I've taken three strangers I'd met at a bistro back to my place for an unforgettable night." Kenzi Foxx—a personal trainer and content creator from Fort Lauderdale, Florida—told us, "I enjoy being nude. I'm still very comfortable with showing off my body. I'm proud of how I look at 53." Sally S.—a "quirky, avant garde homebody" from Ocean, New Jersey—confessed, "I have to work out every day to keep myself in top fucking condition. I'm dominant, forceful, take charge, naughty, borderline nasty and slightly bi-curious. I'm a talented deepthroater and ass eater, I have a kink for pegging a guy's asshole, and a skilled tongue between my legs keeps this lady smiling." Payson Prime from Phoenix, Arizona, said, "I've never been shy about my aspirations in the adult industry. I had a bucket list and a plan for being a successful sex worker, which began at midnight on my 18th birthday. HUSTLER is a major accomplishment!" She added, "I'm an adventurous lover and eager to please. I've often been told that my sexual encounters are refreshing, rewarding and uncomplicated." Ava Carter from Chicago, Illinois, declared, "I've learned to embrace my sexuality. I find it incredibly exciting to show off my body. I can celebrate who I am—and my natural urges—while encouraging others to embrace their sexuality. I want to enjoy life and sex to the fullest." Happy birthday, ladies!

AVA CARTER

"Helping others has always made me happy. I've often been told that I'm a sexy, little cutie with a big heart. My fantasy is having a quickie in a private, enclosed cabin on one of the world's tallest Ferris wheels. That would be so exhilarating!"

ROSE THORNE

"When I decided I just had to give nude modeling a try, there was only one place I contacted," recalls Rose Thorne, 19, from St. Louis. Missouri. "HUSTLER, my favorite magazine. Then, after doing everything I'd been instructed to do, I had ants in my pants—figuratively of course—until I found out I'd be appearing in Beaver Hunt. Wow! That was the happiest day of my life!" The 5-foot-8 Show-Me Stater goes on to reveal, "I'm quirky, compulsive and into all sorts of things. I like watching YouTube videos, eating different foods, shopping for inexpensive antiques, listening to 1980s and '90s rock and exploring the banks of the Mississippi River." Meanwhile, Rose's desire to be intimate with someone is apparently in a holding pattern. "I am inexperienced but extremely curious," the lanky eye-catcher admits. "I haven't had a boyfriend or sex yet, but I'm not gonna be a virgin forever. As a matter of fact, I can see myself someday falling in love with a much older man who is smart, kind, romantic and taller than I am."

"I hope lots of readers fantasize about being the guy who takes my precious virginity."

ARE YOU AN AMATEUR EXHIBITIONIST 18 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER? For information on how to be a Beaver Hunt model—and be paid $200—send an email to BeaverHunt@LFP.com.
